Jason M. Minami represents management in state and federal court and before administrative agencies. He has represented a wide variety of clients ranging from large corporations to small companies and has experience in several industries. He has a record of negotiating favorable settlements in a variety of actions. Mr. Minami also advises clients on preventive labor and employee relations practices, including sexual harassment, employment discrimination, employment contracts, severance agreements, leave laws, wage and hour compliance, debt collection, premises liability, and other employment-related matters.

Prior to joining the firm in 2010, he represented companies in commercial litigation with an emphasis on insurance insolvency and bad faith litigation. He also served as a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for the City and County of Honolulu, State of Hawaii, and served as a law clerk to the Honorable Michael A. Town, Circuit Court of the First Circuit, State of Hawaii.

Mr. Minami is a graduate of the University of Hawaii and the William S. Richardson School of Law. He is licensed to practice in all state and federal courts in the State of Hawaii.
